

10 Positive Test Scenarios

1. It showcases it's a Registration form.
2. Can't be submitted with empty name. Text shows: Please fill in this field.
3. Can't be submitted with empty email. Text shows: Please include an '@' in the email address. 'Somevalue' is missing an '@'.
4. Even after providing value + @ Example: 34@. Its response is Please enter the part following @. '34@' is incomplete.
5. Email gets passed after 34@1. Means it is in form *@* where * can be text.
6. Password can't be empty.
7. Gender: By default set to female radio giving little respect/comfort to womens.
8. Country: By default set to India in dropdown gives little comfort to indians.
9. Has a dark mode system to reduce eyes stress to white page.
10. Submit button triggers to show text what is provided.

5 Negative Test Scenarios

1. Does'nt have purpose of Registration form.
2. For the first time/after refreshing page, first click on the dark mode does not work.
3. Without checking Accept terms, its possible to submit and show the output text provided.
4. Does'nt have interactive system like animations, etc. Every elements are fixed in its position.
5. After submitting, it doesn't have other functionalities except what is provided by the user.